Step into the golden sand

Kanoi (Jaisalmer)

Step into the golden sand

Step into the golden sand at the Kanoi village where the famous dunes of the great Indian Desert begin. As you walk through the dunes, watch the womenfolk carrying earthen pots, bringing water to their homes and the folk music reverberating from local musicians practicing afar.

What to look around for?

The great dunes of Sam are something you can't afford to miss. Walk the sand dunes as sun sets on the other side and the sunrays dance to the tunes of folk Rajasthani music. Watch the pot makers shaping a mud lump into a piece of art and listen to the folk musicians playing their tunes. A great camping experience amidst the desert in various resorts and camping sites on way to Sam Sand Dunes will get you wonderstruck.

What not to miss?

See the ancient cenotaphs and old water preserving methods in ancient wells and reservoirs. The desert wildlife including chinkara and rabbits also joins you on your desert safari as you ride a camel to the depths of the sand dunes.
