

Sorsan (Baran)

The land of black bucks

Get close to mother nature and smell the essence of Rajasthani countryside. Be a part of a village household and embrace the rural Rajasthani life.

What to look around for?

The undulating grasslands here are a paradise for wildlife lovers. Climb the watchtower and watch the grazing herds of chinkara (Indian gazelle), blackbucks and over 100 species of birds... the real wildlife adventure awaits you. A religious fair is organized every year on Shiv Ratri.

What not to miss?

As you walk down the lanes of Sorsan, get close to the rural Rajasthan in its most vibrant colours. Visit the Sorsan Brahamani Mata Old Temple and Shiv Temple.

Where to stay?

Comfortable accommodation options with good amenities are available in the nearby cities — Anta (20 km), Kota (65 km), Baran (45 km).

How can I get there?

Sorsan is well connected to Baran, Kota and Jhalawar by road.

How far is the closest city (with accommodation facility)?

- Anta - 20 Km
- Baran - 45 Km via Anta
- Kota - 65 Km via Anta
- Jhalawar - 80 Km via Bapawar and Khanpur
- Jaipur (nearest airport) - 310 km

For more details contact:

Tourist Reception Centre
RTDC Hotel Chambal Campus
Nayapura, Kota. Tel: +91 744 2327695

